Spandan Punwatkar

Computer Science and Engineering student

HERE'S MY STORY:

I've been learning Computer Science and programming since 7th grade. I started out with Java, that was taught to us at school, after which i started learning JavaScript (through Node.js). I strive for excellence and always try to make things simpler, better, efficient and secure. I am also fluent in English, Hindi, Marathi, Russian, and am learning the German language.
